

SARATOGA SIEGE WEEKEND 2026 EVENTS

OCTOBER 10 & 11 SATURDAY 10AM-4PM, SUNDAY 10AM-2PM

Fort Hardy Park, Schuylerville

We All Scream “Huzzah” for Ice Cream! Thanks to Stewart’s Shops for offering free scoops while supplies last! Saturday 11am – 1pm

Battles of Saratoga in Motion: Preview our new exhibit in the Saratoga Revolutionary Experience Center and grab some merch!

Wagon Rides: Experience horsepower from 250 years ago!

Come Play with Us! Fun for all ages! Learn about the origins of 18th century games, toys, and activities and then try them out!

Shoulder Your Firelocks! Do you know how to “About Face?” Calling all young recruits to practice the Manual of Arms with wooden muskets and learn the commands continental soldiers would have lived by during the American Revolution. 10:30AM, 11:30AM, 12:30PM, 1:30PM (also at 2:30PM & 3:30PM on Saturday Only)

Saratoga250 Tent: Come visit the Saratoga250 tent to learn more about our revolutionary past and participate in activities for all ages. Scan your Siege Weekend Passport and return for a prize when you’ve visited all the locations!

Revolutionary Music: Discover the sounds of the 1770s! Hear common fiddle tunes of the era and discuss how musical tastes evolved.

Sewing and Mending Clothes: Discover the fabrics, stitches, and fashions of the 18th century as you chat with a seamstress. Learn about the importance of sewing and repair within the army and in civilian life.

Preserving the Harvest: What foods would you eat during the spring, summer, fall, and winter in the 1770s? Learn how food was preserved and prepared on local farms.

Healing in the 1770s: Discover the vital role that midwives and nurses played in their communities and on campaign.

Books & Correspondence: Explore the importance of the printed word with a bookbinder. Learn how to create a book, examine samples of the materials, and view original and replica documents and books.

Visit with British Soldiers: British soldiers are on hand to restore order to the rebellious American colonies. Explore the camps to see where the troops slept, how they cleaned their muskets, and prepared food.

Chat with the Continental Army: Continental soldiers from Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Vermont are ready to defend against any British invasion. Wander the camps and encounter soldiers cooking their meals, a petty sutler selling various necessities and more.

Curious about blacksmithing? Visit the traveling forge, a piece of equipment that acted as a mobile repair shop to fix tools, wagons, cannons, or whatever an army on the move needed.

Cannon Demonstrations: New York’s Continental artillery corps will ensure that no Redcoats pass the high bluffs and march on to conquer Albany. Cannon firing demonstrations on the hour.

Dogs in the Revolution? A special lecture at the Gateway Visitor Center, Saturday 11AM

Saratoga Voices Concert: Dining Tent, Saturday 2PM

Saratoga Trail Tales: The Evolution of an Old Trail, a special lecture at the Gateway Visitor Center, Saturday 3PM

The Convention Army: A special lecture at the Gateway Visitor Center, Sunday 11AM

Walking Tour of the Siege Lines: Gateway Visitor Center, Sunday 12PM (Ferry St entrance, weather permitting)

Hulled Between Wind & Water: Col. John Brown Attacks Burgoyne’s Supply Line, a special lecture at the Gateway Visitor Center, Sunday 1PM

Activities available all weekend unless otherwise noted.*

